

St Ignatius Parish

presents their 11th Annual, ecumenical

Women's Night of Spirituality

Robyn Emerson

St Ignatius parishioner Robyn Emerson is a science journalist and speech writer who works in communications at Brisbane City Council. A mother of two young adults, she is currently studying a research degree in Creative Writing and is working on a children's book.

Tonight she introduces:

Andrée Rice:

Andrée Rice has followed her mother's lead as a passionate educator and she is currently Deputy-Principal Boarding at Stuartholme where she is loving the challenge of promoting the happiness and wellbeing of 154 young women who call Stuartholme home!

Andrée, Justin and their three boys have spent a number of years living in remote aboriginal communities in the NT, and social justice has always been at the heart of her spirituality.

Sue Buckingham:

Sue Buckingham was educated at Santa Sabina Strathfield; she is married to Lewis, has six children and is a member of St Canisus Parish, Kings Cross. She works at David's place – a place of prayer and care for marginalised people at the Cross.

Adele Rice A.M.:

Adele Rice has been appointed as a member of the Order of Australia. The award cited her significant service to secondary education, and to the migrant and refugee community. Adele is serving as the Chair of FHEAL (Friends of HEAL), a not-for-profit foundation dedicated to providing healing for traumatised refugee young people through the expressive arts using Music and Art Therapies.
