Apprenticeships Support Australia

For information about apprenticeships, visit the Apprenticeship Support Australia website and click on ‘Apprentices’. Here you will find information about apprenticeship wages, qualifications, registered training organisations, school-based apprenticeships, how to get an apprenticeship and how you can access mentoring support. On the site, you can also schedule a free career consultation with a career adviser.

Apprenticeships through Group Training Organisations

Registering with a Group Training Organisation (GTO) is one strategy to try when looking for an apprenticeship. GTOs employ apprentices and trainees and place them with a host employer until the apprenticeship or traineeship has been completed. For more information about GTOs, visit the Group Training Australia website. This site includes a list of GTOs and their contact information. The Pathways to Success section of the website has short videos of apprentices and trainees talking about their training.

Career planning tools

CAREERinsite is a Canadian website that has several free career planning tools. A way to use this site and tie it into Australian occupational information is:

- Scroll down to ‘Get started’ and sign up.
- Do the ‘Know yourself’ quiz. The quiz can help you identify the job activities you like. The report at the end of the quiz summarises your preferences and links these to a list of jobs. Select jobs from the list you would like to explore further.
- The ‘Explore options’ section encourages you to:

  - read about the jobs you have selected. For Australian content, go to Occupations on the myfuture website (sign up if this your first visit to the site) or Explore Careers on the Skillsroad website
  - talk to people already in these jobs
  - try the jobs (e.g. do work experience or follow someone already in the job for a couple of days).

  Through these activities, you can narrow down your list of jobs, retaining those you most like.

- The ‘Get ready’ section helps you compare the remaining jobs on your list.
- The ‘Take action’ section helps you develop an action plan for your next step which could be to apply for a course or to find a job.

Got a business idea but don’t know where to start?

Visit the Enterprise Network for Young Australians (ENYA) website. ENYA is a not-for-profit organisation run by young people for young enterprising people who are eager to start their own business. The ENYA site has a range of resources, including a step-by-step process for getting funding for your business.

How to make better career decisions

The myfuture website has a resource called The Adventures of You executive function guide. Executive functions are the mental skills needed to make decisions, including career and course decisions. These include planning, reasoning, prioritising, problem solving, task flexibility, execution and monitoring actions. The Adventures of You site includes three animated videos that will help you understand these skills.
Skillsroad – a career exploration website

The Skillsroad website has many activities that can help you get started on your career exploration. They include:

- Career quiz – learn more about yourself, your strengths and talents and the jobs you might be attracted to
- Job fit Test – are you job ready? Find out by doing this test
- Explore careers – comprehensive information on over 350 jobs
- Industry videos – listen to the stories of people already on the job
- Training and study options – information about apprenticeships and traineeships, university, Vocational Education and Training.

The site also provides information on job seeking skills such as finding a job, preparing for interviews, resume builder and a jobs board. A Work Readiness course can be accessed for a fee from the site.
BUFTA short film competition

Bond University Film and Television Awards (BUFTA) is a short film competition for aspiring filmmakers from Years 11 and 12 across Australia. There are six categories in the competition – Animation, Comedy, Documentary, Drama, Experimental Film and Music Video. Entries open on 1 May 2017 and close on 30 September 2017. Visit the BUFTA website for competition details and to view the 2016 BUFTA Gala Awards Ceremony.

Screen It 2017

Fancy yourself as a filmmaker, animator or video game creator? This is the competition for you. Screen It is Australia’s national moving image competition for school-aged students. This year the theme of the competition is ‘Time’. Entries for 2017 close on 25 September. For details, resources and a look at last year’s winners, visit the website. Talk to a teacher or your school Guidance Officer/Counsellor about entering this competition.

The Spaghetti Bridge Competition

This competition tests the engineering skills of students and provides them with experience in the planning, creativity, problem solving and team work required for a career in engineering. Teams are challenged to build the strongest bridge weighing no more than 300 g (including a load plate), constructed with only store-bought spaghetti and glue and to span a gap of 35 cm. Students from Years 7 to 12 are encouraged to compete for cash prizes. This year there will be three test locations:

- Townsville – 13 August 2017 – James Cook University
- Northern Brisbane/Sunshine Coast – 18 August 2017 – St Eugene College, Burpengary
- Central/Southern Brisbane/Gold Coast – 21 August 2017 – venue to be confirmed.

Find out more on the Spaghetti Bridge Competition website. Talk to your Science and/or Maths teachers about entering this competition.

Young Australian Art Awards

Students from primary and secondary schools are invited to participate in this competition. There are five art categories: Indigenous, Drawing, Painting, Computer Art and Photography. There are three age groups:
Junior (Prep to Year 4), Middle (Year 5 to Year 8), Senior (Year 9 to Year 12). To enter your artwork, you will need to obtain a digital image of your piece of work and submit this image online through the website. Entries close on 6 October 2017.
Applying for medicine/dental/physiotherapy/veterinary courses at James Cook University (JCU)

The following courses offered by JCU require a QTAC application as well as a direct application to JCU.

- B Medicine/B Surgery (Townsville campus)
- B Dental Surgery (Cairns campus)
- B Veterinary Science (Townsville campus)
- B Physiotherapy (Townsville campus)

These JCU courses have a rural, remote, tropical and Indigenous communities focus. Consequently, an important requirement of the JCU direct application is to demonstrate interest, experience, understanding and/or exposure to rural and/or remote locations and conditions. Applicants living in metropolitan areas will find this challenging. You will need to think creatively about how you can obtain the experience/knowledge this year. Some ideas are:

- work-experience during the holidays with a rural practitioner
- attend FEAST and/or TASTE (for vet science)
- interview practitioners who have worked in rural/remote areas
- research the challenges for practitioners in rural/remote areas
- learn about Northern Australia
- find out as much as you can about the content of the JCU courses from brochures, the JCU website, career expos, TSXPO and other career/course events
- organise a guided tour of the relevant JCU campus (see the website)
- if possible, attend a JCU open day (13 August 2017 for the Townsville campus and 20 August 2017 for the Cairns campus).

You can view last year’s (2016 applications for entry in 2017) JCU direct application here. The applications website is usually updated in July for the following year. The due date for applying to QTAC is 29 September 2017. The date for submitting the JCU direct application form is normally the same as the QTAC due date. This date will be confirmed in the QTAC Guide distributed to schools in May/June. You can access the prerequisites for the courses from the JCU website.

Bond with Bond seminars

Students considering applying to Bond University at the end of Year 12 are invited to these seminars. They will be held in:

Snippets from the University of Queensland (UQ)

Concurrent Diplomas at UQ - UQ students can study diplomas in Music Performance and Languages at the same time they are undertaking their undergraduate degree. See the website for details.

WE Explore Engineering Day – Students in Years 10 – 12 are invited to this event to be held from 8.45 am – 2.30 pm on Thursday 4 May 2017. Workshops on the day include Take Flight with Boeing, 3D Manufacturing and Materials of the Future, and AYAA Rocket program. For more information and to register to attend, visit the website.

Experience Science workshops – These interactive workshops, to be held at the St Lucia campus on 7, 12, 13 and 14 July 2017, are for students in Years 10 – 12. They provide an opportunity to discover what studying science at UQ is like and how it is applied in industry today. Students can register as a school group or as individuals.

Undergraduate Guide for 2018 – This publication can be downloaded from the UQ website. It contains information about the courses that will be offered in 2018, a table of all courses with prerequisites and previous OP/rank cut-offs, and everything else you need to know about life at UQ.

UQ Link Program – This is a special admissions scheme to assist prospective students who have experienced educational disadvantage due to financial hardship to gain entry to UQ. All eligible students receive five bonus rank points, a $3,000 per year scholarship for up to three years and access to support services. To apply for this program, you complete the Financial Hardship section of QTAC’s Educational Access Scheme (EAS) when you apply for courses through QTAC.

UQ OP Guarantee – Under this scheme, if you achieve an OP 1 – 5, you are guaranteed entry into your highest eligible course preference in the January major offer round for most of UQ’s undergraduate courses, regardless of the course cut-offs.

UQ Bonus Rank Scheme – This scheme provides up to five bonus rank points towards your entry if you have passed an approved language other than English (LOTE) or Queensland Senior Mathematics C (or equivalent), or if you have successfully completed a university-level subject.

TAFE Queensland Roundup

TAFE QLD Brisbane

• Doing Years 11 and 12 differently – The Alexandra Hills campus offers a Year 11 and 12 program. Updates from Griffith University

New Griffith Apply website – This site provides information on the following topics in short video format:

- What you need to study at Griffith
- Applying to study at Griffith
- Pathways to study
- The cost of tertiary study.

After viewing the videos, scroll down and click on ‘High school students’. This section of the website has useful fact sheets related to admissions and entry pathways.

2018 Undergraduate Degrees Guide – In addition to information about the courses to be offered in 2018, the Guide provides a glimpse of the study opportunities available at Griffith. Included are briefs on scholarships, alternative entry options, bonus entry options, Griffith Honours College, Griffith Sports College, the Griffith campuses and how to apply. Download the Guide from the website (scroll down to ‘Undergraduate Brochure’).

Queensland Conservatorium auditions – Most of the courses offered by the Conservatorium require an audition as one of the entry prerequisites. Audition applications usually open in June. In 2017, they will close on 14 August 2017. The auditions will be held from 25 – 29 September 2017. The Auditions website will be updated for 2018 applications shortly. Note that if you don’t apply for an audition by the due date, you will not be considered for any courses requiring an audition at the Conservatorium.

Go Health, Go Griffith Experience Days – These one-day events are designed for Year 10 students to experience aspects of a health degree through practical and theoretical sessions delivered by health professionals and scientists. They will be held on Thursday 18, Friday 19 and Friday 26 May 2017 at the Logan campus. Talk to your science teacher or school guidance counsellor/officer if you are interested in attending as registrations are through your school. Visit the website for further information.

Science on the Go! – Think you know a lot of science facts? Test yourself on the Griffith Science on the Go! website quiz. The site has the latest science news, competitions and upcoming science and engineering events.

Need help developing a fashion portfolio? ‘Fashion Illustration for Beginners’ is a short course that is held in April, May, June and November over two consecutive Saturdays at QUT’s Creative Industries Precinct in Kelvin Grove. Applications for the May course close on 29 April 2017. Visit the website for details.
Five ways to market yourself to an employer

As part of the Generation Success initiative, a group of young people offered advice to young job seekers about finding their first job. One of their tips was ‘Communication is king’. This involves highlighting your strengths to potential employers by marketing yourself well. The following are strategies you can use to market yourself during your job search.

Highlight your selling points - A selling point is a statement about a skill or quality you have that directly meets an employer’s needs.

Phone an employer - ‘Cold-calling’ is when you contact someone who is not expecting your call. You can cold-call employers to ask about an advertised position or to ask about upcoming jobs. For each of these types of calls, you need to clearly explain the reason for your call.

Meet with employers - You may be meeting with an employer about future job opportunities, or interviewing someone who works in a similar job to the one that you are thinking about. Information interviews like this are great ways to explore the requirements of jobs before you make decisions about your career. They also show the employer that you have confidence and initiative.

Your career portfolio - A career portfolio is a personal collection of materials that document the events and achievements of your life. It helps you organise information so that you can apply for jobs, scholarships and courses.

Manage your reputation - The things you share online, and what others write about you, contribute to your online reputation. Many employers research candidates through Google search, LinkedIn, Twitter, Facebook, Instagram and other social networking services.

Visit the Generation Success website for other strategies for young job seekers.

National Volunteer Week (NVW): 8 – 14 May 2017

Research shows that volunteers live happier and healthier lives. The NVW theme of Give Happy, Live Happy reflects these findings. This year, Volunteering Australia is encouraging all of us to volunteer in whatever capacity we can. According to NSW Volunteering, through volunteering, you will:

- gain new skills and knowledge
- boost your own job and career prospects
- enjoy a sense of achievement and fulfilment
- develop personally and boost self esteem
- enjoy better physical and mental health
- connect to and better understand your community
- meet new people and make new friends.

Keep track of NVW events on the Volunteering Australia website.

Want to work with animals? Six ways to get a job on the wild side

Most animal jobs are competitive. To gain entry to these occupations, you need to have a plan. An article in the Australian edition of ‘The Guardian’ offers six strategies to help you gain a job in this field. The following is a summary of the strategies.

Volunteer – Begin by volunteering at a local kennel, animal charity (e.g. RSPCA, Animal Rescue Qld.) or zoo/animal attraction (e.g. Australia Zoo, Sea World, Currumbin Wildlife Sanctuary). This will give you an understanding of the day-to-day tasks of the work. Volunteering is also a good way of showing that you are committed and willing to go the extra mile.

Make the most of your volunteering – Document it. Make opportunities to learn new skills that could help you in the future. Talk to people working in the field to find out how they got their jobs and about the options out there.

Get qualified - Find out the qualifications, work experience and other things that employers, education and training providers require.

Don't limit yourself - Keep an open mind. You may find something en route to your original goal that you had never thought of and love.

Don’t forget your people skills - Any employment within the animal-based industry will require clear communication skills and the ability to work in a team.

Persevere - You need perseverance if you really want to work in a specific job. It may take longer than you want, but the job satisfaction and rewards are worth it.
What is ICT?

How do you communicate with your friends – SMS, Twitter, Google Plus, Tumblr, Instagram, Snapchat, Pandora, Facebook, Instagram? When you use any of these channels of communication, you are using Information and Communications Technology (ICT).

Time is passing Year 12s

Did you know there are only four months left until the QTAC online application is activated (3 August 2017). You need to begin serious planning for 2018 if you have not already started. If you haven’t a clue where to start or aren’t aware of your options, make an appointment with your school Guidance Officer/Counsellor ASAP. Starting this term, you will have many opportunities to explore your options. For example:

- 2 – 3 June 2017 - Brisbane Careers and Employment Expo at the Brisbane Convention and Exhibition Centre. Also, careers expos will be held in regional centres throughout Queensland.
- From May to September most of the institutions have open days at which you can obtain information about courses and check out the campuses.
- You will receive the QTAC Guide in May/June. This booklet contains information about courses you can apply for through QTAC and application processes.
- 15 – 16 July 2017 - Tertiary Studies Expo (TSXPO) at the RNA showgrounds. Interstate universities will be represented at this expo.
- From 3 August 2017, you can access a range of up-to-date information about the 2017/18 QTAC application and offer processes and the courses offered from the QTAC website.

Take advantage of all these opportunities to plan your immediate future. If you intend to apply to QTAC for entry to tertiary courses in 2018, the on-time application due date is 29 September 2017.

UMAT practice exam

The My Health Career website has an article on UMAT presented by MedEntry. The article includes a link to a UMAT practice exam which includes the exam questions, answers and fully worked solutions.

UMAT reminders

Students applying for medicine and other health science courses may be required to sit for the Undergraduate Medicine and Health Sciences Admission Test (UMAT) as part of the application process. You register to sit for the test on the UMAT website. On time registrations close at 5 pm on 2 June 2017. Late registrations are accepted up to 5 pm on 16 June 2017 (a late fee of $65 applies). The test date is 26 July 2017. Results will be available in late September 2017. Some important points are:
• It is essential that you read the entire UMAT 2017 Information Booklet and complete the UMAT Registration Tutorial before you register for UMAT 2017. Both resources are available on the UMAT website.
• UMAT scores can be used for admission only in the year following the test. Do not register for UMAT 2017 unless you are planning to apply for a course commencing in 2018.
• You can only register to sit for UMAT 2017 if you have already completed or plan to complete Year 12 in 2017 (Year 11 students or students in the first year of a two-year Year 12 cannot sit for UMAT 2017).
Regaining your life balance – the Wheel of Life

When study demands take over your life, it’s all too easy to find yourself off balance, not paying enough attention to other important areas of your life. This is where the Wheel of Life activity on the MindTools website can be useful. It helps you take a ‘helicopter view’ of your life, so you can bring things back into balance and manage your life more effectively. The MindTools website has other topics (e.g. Time Management and Decision Making) you might find useful.

Studywell – QUT’s study skills site

Studywell has been developed for QUT students to help them with all aspects of study. While its intended audience is university students, you might find the following topics useful for your senior studies:

- Study management – watch the video; download weekly and exam planners; use the assignment calculator; view the Effective Learning Strategies slides.
- Exam preparation – read the Exam Plan and Prep – A brief ‘how-to’ guide; view the slides on Exam Types; read about Emergency Test Preparation.
